MUNICIPALITY OF NORRISTOWN

RIGHT-TO-KNOW QUESTIONS

WHAT RECORDS CAN BE REQUESTED?

The Right-To-Know Law guarantees the right of residents to access and obtain copies of public records from state and local government agencies. The Law defines a “record” as “information, regardless of physical form, that documents a transaction or activity of an agency and that is created, received or retained pursuant to law or in connection with a transaction, business, or activity of the agency.”

EXAMPLES OF RECORDS THAT CAN BE REQUESTED

- Financial Records
- Proposed and Approved Ordinances / Resolutions
- Minutes of Public Meetings
- Public Hearing Transcripts
- Annual Budgets
- Audit Reports
- Administrative Manuals
- Meeting Calendars
- Grant Applications
- Municipal Contracts
- Agreements
- 911 Response Logs
- Voting Records

These are only a few examples of records that may be requested

EXCEPTIONS TO THE LAW:

Some public records are exempt from the Right-To-Know Law and access can be denied when requested. It is the responsibility of the Municipality’s Right-To-Know to decide whether requested records are exempt from the Law and eligible to be denied to the public. If a request is denied, the Municipality must inform requesters as the reason the requested records are not accessible to the public.

INFORMATION NOT AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC

- Staff Social Security and Driver’s License Numbers
- Personal Phone Numbers
- Personal Financial Information
- Home Addresses of Staff
- Staff Family Information
- Information of Minors
- Real Estate Appraisals
- Draft Proposals, Contracts, or Municipal Document
- Social Services Records
- Investigative Records
- Labor Negotiation Records
- Pre-Decisional Deliberations
- Any record that, if disclosed, would result in the loss of funds, or would compromise / endanger the safety or security of a building, public utility, infrastructure, information storage system, or that of an individual.

These are only a few examples of records that are exempt from the Right-To-Know Law

Be sure to check the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records to learn more about the Right-To-Know Law as well as public records that are considered exemptions to the law.
